There is no better way to build early literacy skills than to involve the whole family! Supporting language, literacy and reading development of young children are the responsibilities of parents, teachers, and the community.

The Children and Families Program is excited to host our 3rd annual family literacy event. Families are encouraged to join us for a fun, exciting and educational morning filled with lots of fun things for little ones to do! Children will have fun while they are learning and parents will leave with creative ideas to enhance their children's literacy skills at home.

Family story time and musical entertainment

Face painting and pictures with characters

Fun games and hands-on stations

Raffles,
refreshments and
giveaways

Family nutrition health, &
other resources
