

This Fall, Madonna will be offering the mandatory reading course on our Livonia campus, at the discounted rate that is normally reserved for Off-Campus offerings (20% off the graduate tuition rate). This hybrid course for elementary and secondary teachers runs for 8 weeks (August to November 2017), meeting face-to-face 4 times on Saturdays (see schedule below). Upon successful completion of the course, participants will have earned the necessary credits to fulfill MDE’s reading requirement for Professional Certification. If you are in need of this course, or know someone who is, you won’t want to miss this opportunity.

Required Reading Course for Professional Certification

RDG 5510 & 5520: Reading Process, Assessment and Instruction for Elementary and Secondary Teachers (3 semester hours)

SPECIAL DISCOUNTED TUITION

$632 per semester hour*

*payment plans available

Course Description: Course content emphasizes the importance of ongoing assessment to appropriately inform and differentiate instruction for diverse students in any elementary/secondary classroom. Field experiences provide opportunities to administer assessments in the following areas: interest inventories, English language learning and language expression and processing, visual and auditory discrimination, phonemic awareness, phonics, fluency, spelling, writing and vocabulary and comprehension. Students learn instructional strategies needed to effectively develop these critical literacy related areas. Prerequisite elementary or secondary teacher certification.

Satisfies Michigan Department of Education requirement for Professional Certification.
