

SCHOOL OF EDUCATION AND HUMAN SERVICES

DEPARTMENT OF
ORGANIZATIONAL LEADERSHIP

A newly revised Education Specialist Degree Program in Leadership w/
Mindfulness Embedded content offered @ the Macomb University Center
Eligibility for the State of Michigan's K-12 Administrative Certificate;
Basic Endorsement for Building Level Leadership

Maximize your time, investment, & expand your career options

Apply now for a winter 2019 start- ACCELERATED 18-month program

- A 34-credit, post-master's degree program designed to be completed in 18-months as a cohort; with the option of applying up to 28 credits of this Ed.S. toward OU's Ph.D. or 20 credits towards the Ed.D. in Education
- Mentorship and action research in your area of interest to provide opportunities to customize your program
- This newly revised degree program focuses on leading schools with essential skills in stress management, emotional intelligence, self-care, and mindfulness-based practices embedded in the quality administrative preparation course work
- Outstanding faculty with extensive experience in school leadership including the program coordinator, Dr. Caryn Wells, who has extensive training and teaching experience in Mindfulness-Based practices
- Classes held @ the MUC in Macomb County with an innovative design of course offerings including:
  - ✓ Tuesday night classes once a week from 5:30-8:50
  - ✓ Five Saturday classes from 9:00-3:00 in both the fall and winter of the 2-year program
  - ✓ Two totally on-line classes
- Develop professional relationships & network with educators from varied & diverse backgrounds

To request more information or an appointment please contact:
Dr. Christine Abbott, Dept. of Organizational Leadership ~ Oakland University
cabbott@oakland.edu | 248-370-2636