

Feeder Track School 2019-20

Here is a breakdown of each school that will be in a specific feeder track. It is acknowledged that some schools feed into more than one school, but we felt like this would be the best decision on the feeder track design.

DEARBORN HIGH SCHOOL – Fatme Faraj, Executive Director

will supervise all principals in the Dearborn High School Feeder Track in addition to other supervisory responsibilities on the Organizational Chart.

School Improvement & Leadership Coaching/Assessment Research & Evaluation/Dearborn Teacher University/Middle School Instructional Coaches/Coordinators/Strategic Plan

Middle School – Bryant
Elementary Schools – Haigh, Howard, Lindbergh, Maples, River Oaks and Howe/Montessori

EDSEL FORD HIGH SCHOOL – Jill Chochol, Ph.D., Executive Director

will supervise all principals in the Edsel Ford High School Feeder Track in addition to other supervisory responsibilities on the Organizational Chart.

Curriculum/Special Education/Early Childhood/Media & Technology/Instructional Services/Early Childhood Specialists/Instructional Coaches

Middle Schools – Salina Intermediate, Stout, and Smith
Elementary Schools – DuVall, Geer Park, Long, Miller, Salina Elementary, Snow, Nowlin, and Whitmore-Bolles

FORDSON HIGH SCHOOL – Shannon Peterson, Ed.S, Executive Director

will supervise all principals in the Fordson High School Feeder Track in addition to other supervisory responsibilities on the Organizational Chart.

MBCC/Henry Ford College/Early College/Collegiate Academy/Dual Enrollment/Compensatory Education & English Learners/Instructional Coaches/Counseling/Graduation Specialists

High School Options – Berry Center, Magnet and DCMST
Middle Schools – Lowrey, STEM, Unis, and Woodworth
Elementary Schools – Becker, Henry Ford, William Ford, Lowrey, McCollough, McDonald and Oakman