Welcome Back

A letter from the Principal

Dear Parent/Guardian,

* Thank you to all the parents who attended our last Parent Principal Forum meeting on Sept. 26. We had a great turnout. We discussed the following topics:

1. M-Step Reports
2. Middle School Schedule and Updates
3. "1 or More E's Reports"
4. "2 or More E's Plan"
5. PBIS, Bullying, Rules
6. Other(s)
7. Q and A

* Parent communication is key! We stressed the importance of parents contacting teachers if they have a question or concern. Checking teacher iblog sites and going on to Parent Connect is important as well. As of now, all teachers have called home if a child was failing his/her class.

* Your child's M-Step report was mailed home. Directions were also sent in Arabic and English on "how to read your child's score report."

* We also discussed the importance of reminding students to use the crosswalks at dismissal.

* Last, we talked about Summer

School. Any student that has 2 or more E's at the end of the school year will have to go to a Mandatory Summer School program.

If you have any questions about any of these topics, please stop by the school and talk to one of our staff.

Sincerely, Mr. Lawera

Please call the office to report an absence.

Thank you for Giving Back

This year we are fortunate to be on the receiving end of very generous donors. Thank you to Alexander Shoshko for his continuous support and donation of $1000 to the music and art department. Alexander is a former student and alumni of Salina school.

Salina also appreciates the school supplies donated to all our students from Amity foundation as well as the employees from AK steel.

Creative Writing Ideas.

There is great reciprocity between reading and writing. That means that they are closely related: strength in reading can lead to strength in writing. It is the reason it is important to write every day. Many parents ask, “How can I get my child to write every day at home?”

Here are some quick and easy ideas:

Have children make the grocery lists at home, have them write a book review, write a letter to a loved one far from here or write a thank you note for a gift. How about write an article for a newspaper on their latest sport's team's win.... Get creative! The choices are endless.

As your student grows in writing, their abilities in reading will strengthen too. Read them together and talk about the pictures.
