Teachers Bulletin

You Should Run for President: Sunday, Oct. 11, 2015

An awesome opportunity to high school students to attend this FREE event and build their confidence and abilities to get involved positively! They will listen to, dialogue with other political figures, and learn what it takes to become involved!

If you teach History, Social, Political, or Civic Studies on any level, this would be a great project for your students to attend and share throughout the week.
