Pajama Day: December 15

On Tuesday, December 15, Stout will be having a Pajama Day! YES! You can actually come to school in your comfortable PJ's! Pay $1 as a donation to Stout's Be1 Antibullying Club and wear your favorite pajamas. It will be as if you are already on Winter Break.

Of course, the dress code still applies, so make sure you are not breaking any dress code rules or your parent will have to bring you a change of clothes. Each student participating in the Pajama Day will need to pay $1 to their AA teachers first thing Tuesday morning- just don't fall asleep in 1st hour!

Winter Concert & Holiday Play: December 15

December 15th is our Winter Concert and Holiday Play. Students will be performing holiday jingles and music ensembles directed by Mr. Jim Walters. Stout Theatre Company (STC) will present Billy Shakespeare's "The Elf Rebellion". We appreciate all the support we get from our Stout family, and hope you will consider attending an evening of great music and performing arts.

Bring a Smile to a Kid's Face: Donate a Toy!

It is that time of the year again, and so many children are in need of toys that could draw much-needed smiles on their faces.

Student Council will be collecting toys for the Salvation Army between now and Thursday, Dec. 10, so please bring in unwrapped toys to your A/A classes. The A/A class that collects the most will win a pizza lunch. Student Council will also sell candy cane grams between Thursday, Dec. 10 and Wednesday, Dec. 16. We will deliver the candy canes on Thursday, Dec. 17.

Please support your student council. Thanks - Ms. Woolley and Ms. Schulkey.

Late Arrival Day: Wednesday, Dec. 16

Students can benefit from a Late Arrival Day on Wednesday, Dec. 16 to sleep a little bit longer. Can teachers do that? Nope!
