

St. Patrick Day
Sunday, March 17

Today is "B" Day

Abraham Lincoln once said:

"I would rather be a little nobody, then to be an evil somebody!"

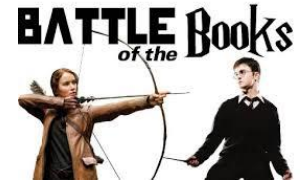

EFHS Incoming Freshmen Volleyball Meeting: Friday, March 22

There will be an EFHS volleyball meeting for incoming freshmen on March 22nd at 7:00pm in the EFHS cafeteria.

Battle of the Books: Return your final books

Attention Battle of the Books participants! It's time to return your final books. Please return them by the end of the day on Friday March 15th, and have 2-3 members of your team come to the Media Center to check out one copy of each novel so you guys can prepare for the final battle. The competition will take place Friday March 29th at 1:00 p.m. in the Team Meeting Room. You don't need to bring anything with you. Computers will be set up for you. Mrs. Acker is taping the event and she will be posting it on her blog afterward if any of your family or friends want to see you compete. Best of luck!

Candy Jar Guessing Game Fundraiser: March 13-22

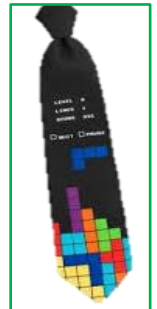

Student Council will raise money for Edsel Ford's Charity week by hosting a 'Candy Jar Guessing Game' during all three lunches. Students can purchase one ticket (to guess) for 50 cents or 3 for a dollar. They can enter as many times as the like. This will start tomorrow and run through 3/22. The person that guesses the correct amount of candy in the jar will WIN that jar of candy. Again, ALL money collected will go towards Edsel Ford's Charity Week.

March is Reading Month Tie Contest

Mr. Melvin needs your help to design a tie for him to wear. Use your artistic skills on a blank piece of paper and design a colorful tie based on a great book you've read recently. It can feature characters, scenes, action, or even words from the book you chose. Then, on a separate sheet of paper, write one paragraph about your drawing and how it represents the book you chose.

Entries are due by Friday, March 22nd to Mr. Melvin in room D-4.

The contest is open to all students at Stout who would like to win $25 to spend at the Stout's Scholastic book fair. First place will receive $25 coupons and runners up will receive $5 coupons for free books from the Scholastic Book Order.

Circle of Friends Meetings: March 19th

Mrs. Nasser invites "Circle of friends" members to meet with their assigned partner to have lunch together in the cafeteria on Tuesday, March 19, 2019

Pennies for Pasta to fight blood cancer: March 06 - 22

The Student Council asks you to help fight Lymphoma & Leukemia. The Pennies for Pasta drive will last from Wednesday, March 6th to Friday, March 22nd. Each first hour teacher will collect donations from his/her students. Any student who donates $1.00 or more will have a certificate with his/her name posted in the class room. The top 1st hour class that donates the most will receive an Olive Garden Pasta lunch. The 2nd place class will win a pizza lunch.

DHS Orientation night: Tuesday, March 26

The upcoming parent night visitation for future incoming 9th graders to Dearborn High School will be held at 6:30 pm on Tuesday, March 26, 2019.

Dearborn High admin and representatives will be meeting parents and future students in the auditorium and then have informal tours of the school as well as representation from clubs and athletics to talk to parents and students in the cafeteria.

Edsel Ford Orientation night: Thursday, March 28

Edsel Ford will hold its Spring Orientation for students and parents on Thursday, March 28th from 6:00pm-8:00pm.

6:00pm-6:30pm Families will gather in the auditorium for a brief welcoming

6:30pm-8:00pm Families are invited into the cafeteria to see all of the wonderful clubs, sports, and academic opportunities that Edsel has to offer.

Peer Mentors: How to avoid weekly logs?

If you are a peer mentor and tired of writing those weekly logs, then here is your way out:

If you purchase anything at the School Store and just bring the receipt to either Mrs. Wheble or Ms. Crechiolo – depending on the hours you peer mentor – you do not need to write a log for that week!

Remember: NO RECEIPT NO TREAT!