Pay $1 and Use your phone during lunch
Today

The first event of the Superintendent and Executive Directors’ Student Advisory Council (SEDSAC) charity week is this Friday, April 26, 2019. Students can pay one dollar in their first hour to use their phone during lunch. They will receive a sticker that they can put on their phone. Just remember that you need to use your phone properly. If the phone is misused, it will be taken away and consequences will be assigned.

Care to the Core: Today

The big Care to the CORE day is coming to Stout and all other Dearborn Public Schools on Friday, April 26th. The Communications team from Dearborn Public Schools will be out and about visiting schools on Friday and sharing all the fun on social media. Please remember to use the hashtag #Care2core19 on all your social media posts this Friday and to share the hashtag with all your friends. Our goal is to get that hashtag trending in the metro area this Friday. Click here to play the short video Care to the Core 2019
