Battle against Hunger starts this week!

From November 18th to November 22nd, students from all three high schools in Dearborn will be participating in The 5th Annual Battle against Hunger. Each year, students from the high schools and their feeder middle schools and elementary schools collect non-perishable food items such as canned and boxed goods to help support local families in need. The goods are distributed through Zaman International and the Amity Foundation, two local non-profit organizations in Dearborn. You can bring in as many items as you wish through Friday. Let's support our feeder high schools in their efforts to help local families in need!

Student ID's and Game Days

Just a reminder: Students' IDs will be REQUIRED to attend any athletic event throughout the remainder of the year. Tomorrow, we have our boys' basketball game against Woodworth, and your ID will be required for entry. NO ID NO ENTRY
